Revision Date: July 2024

Guide Version: 7/2024 (AWPL)

HOW TO APPLY FOR AN AMUSEMENTS WITH PRIZES LICENCE

Any person who wants to organize or conduct games of amusement with prizes has to apply for an AWPL from the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs (“the public officer”). The premises at which the games of amusements with prizes are conducted must be covered by a valid Places of Public Entertainment Licence (“PPEL”) granted by the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department (“FEHD”) under the Places of Public Entertainment Ordinance (Cap. 172).

The law under which an AWPL is issued

AWPL is issued in accordance with the provisions of the Gambling Ordinance (Cap. 148) and the Gambling Regulations (Cap. 148A).

The licensee must comply with all laws in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”), including but without limitation to the Law of the People's Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“National Security Law”) and other relevant laws of the HKSAR in relation to the safeguarding of national security (“relevant laws”). In particular, Article 3 of the National Security Law provides that it is the duty of the HKSAR under the Constitution of the People’s Republic of China to safeguard national security and the HKSAR shall perform the duty accordingly, and that the executive authorities, legislature and judiciary of the HKSAR shall effectively prevent, suppress and impose punishment for any act or activity endangering national security in accordance with the National Security Law and other relevant laws. Article 6(2) of National Security Law provides that any institution, organisation or individual in the HKSAR shall abide by the National Security Law and the laws of the HKSAR in relation to the safeguarding of national security, and shall not engage in any act or activity which endangers national security. It is therefore the duty of the licensee to ensure that the conduct of the intended games of amusement with prizes will not involve any act or activity which would or is likely to constitute or cause the occurrence of any offence endangering national security or any act or activity which would otherwise be contrary to the interests of national security, and that no such act or activity will be undertaken by the licensee and/or its employees, agents, sponsors, promoters and contractors and any other person(s) who will be involved in the organisation or operation of the intended games of amusement with prizes. In accordance with section 22(4) of the Gambling Ordinance, the public officer may cancel an AWPL at any time if a condition of the licence is contravened or if he/she considers that the public interest so requires. National security interest is an important aspect of public interest to be considered by the public officer in such regard. Licensees failing to observe the licence condition(s) and/or their obligations in relation to the safeguarding of national security are liable to have their licence cancelled.

The public officer is entitled to reject the application if, amongst others, the public officer has reasonable ground to believe that: -

(a) the applicant or any of its employees, agents, sponsors, promoters, contractors and any other person(s) who will be involved in the organisation or operation of the intended games of amusement with prizes (including but without limitation to the person(s) involved as stated by the applicant in the application form) has engaged in or otherwise been involved in, or will engage in or otherwise be involved in, any act or activity which would or is likely to constitute or cause the occurrence of any offence endangering national security or any act or activity which may otherwise be contrary to the interests of national security.

(b) the conduct of the intended games of amusement with prizes will involve any act or activity which would or is likely to constitute or cause the occurrence of any offence endangering national security or any act or activity which may otherwise be contrary to the interests of national security.

The public officer may, if he/she considers necessary, require the applicant to provide further information in support of the licence application. All information provided in connection with the licence application may be referred to other Government bureaux/departments or organisations for purposes in connection with the processing of the licence application. Please refer to Enclosure 8 for details of the purposes of collection of personal data and the classes of persons to whom the personal data may be transferred.

You may access the Hong Kong e-Legislation at <https://www.elegislation.gov.hk> for contents of the relevant legislation.

Some examples

The examples set out below are for general reference only and must not be taken as legal advice or implication that certain kinds of games require or do not require a licence. Each case must be determined on its own facts and circumstances. Even if a case is similar to the examples set out below, there may be other circumstances of the case that would lead to a different result. You must refer to the Gambling Ordinance and seek independent legal advice, where necessary, on whether a licence is required.

The organisation and conduct of a game of amusement with prizes on premises licensed under a PPEL (for example, family amusement centres, places in or on which functions like funfair, bazaar and grand fete are presented or carried out) will usually require an AWPL.

How to apply

Application for an AWPL should be made to the Office of the Licensing Authority of the Home Affairs Department (“OLA”) at Unit 2503-05, 25th Floor, AIA Tower, 183 Electric Road, North Point, Hong Kong, with the envelope indicating “Application for the Amusements With Prizes Licence”. You can also submit your application via the electronic submission channel at (<https://eform.cefs.gov.hk/form/had063/en/>). Applicant may also make reference to Enclosure 9 – Sample of Completed Form 3, Enclosure 10 – Sample of Amusements with Prizes Game List and Enclosure 11 – Samples of Amusements with Prizes Game when completing the application form. You may also download the relevant documents and access to the application details from the website of the OLA (<https://www.hadla.gov.hk/el/en/entertainment/forms.php>). For applications submitted via electronic submission channel, applicants have to submit the required supporting documents (if applicable) with the transaction reference number quoted to the OLA (by hand or by mail), within 7 working days after making the electronic submission. For the information related to the application of PPEL, please refer to the FEHD’s website (<http://www.fehd.gov.hk>).

Where an application is made on behalf of a company within the meaning of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622), Forms 3 and 7 should be completed. Where an application is made on behalf of a club or society in respect of which the Societies Ordinance (Cap. 151) applies, Forms 3 and 8 should be completed. Where an application is not made on behalf of a company or such a society or club, Forms 3 and 6 should be completed.

Before completing the forms, please read the conditions carefully and fill in the forms in Chinese or English. If you have any enquiry, you may contact the staff of the OLA (Tel: 2116 5230).

The completed original of the forms should be sent to the OLA together with the supporting documents specified in the checklist (Enclosure 6). It normally takes three to four weeks to process an application for a licence*. Applicants are advised to submit their applications as early as possible. However, actual time for the issue of licence will be subject to availability of all the required documents and the PPEL. If a licence is granted, a licence fee of $3,200 is payable unless an application for waiver or reduction of the licence fee has been endorsed.

Application for waiver of licence fee will not normally be considered unless the applicant organisation (or its 'parent' organisation) is a charitable institution or trust of a public character being exempted from tax under section 88 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112). Application for reduction of licence fee will not normally be approved unless the applicant organisation is a non-commercial or voluntary services group and does not charge or collect any fee for the participation in the games or admission to the venue. Each application for a waiver or a reduction of the licence fee will be considered on its own facts and circumstances.

When you have been granted a licence

You should read all the licence conditions very carefully and make sure that they are properly complied with when the games take place. If you do not abide by these conditions, you are liable to be prosecuted. It may also result in cancellation of your licence. The AWPL is only valid for the place, time and date or period specified.

Change of particulars of a licence

If you need to change the particulars of an AWPL such as the date or place of the games or the types of games/game machines, you should apply to the public officer and explain in writing the reasons for the changes required. If permission is given, you are required to submit the licence to the OLA for amendment upon payment of an official signature fee. The current fee is $155.

Change of authorised person

If a company, society or club holding an AWPL has to change its authorised person, a notification about the change should be given to OLA by completing the proforma “Notification of Change of Authorised Person” as soon as possible. Once OLA has completed processing the notification, a written reply would be provided to the licensee.

- * Remarks: Refer to processing time by this office alone. According to our performance pledges, 3 weeks will be required for issue of a short-term licence while 4 weeks will be required for issue of an annual licence. Upon receipt of PPEL from the FEHD, an AWPL will be issued in 8 working days provided that the game list as attached to the PPEL is the same as that attached to the Further Consideration letter issued by the public officer.

Statutory Provisions Relevant to AWPL

Enclosure 2

Gambling Ordinance (Cap. 148)

22. (1) The public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs may-
- (a) by licence authorize -
 - (iii) the organization and conduct of a game of amusement with prizes to be conducted on premises licensed under section 4 of the Places of Public Entertainment Ordinance (Cap. 172);
- (3) Any such licence shall be subject to the prescribed conditions and to any other conditions which the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs may impose.
- (4) The public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs may cancel any such licence at any time -
- (a) if a condition of the licence is contravened whether or not any person has been convicted of an offence under subsection (6); or
 - (b) he considers that the public interest so requires.
- (5) Notice in writing of a decision of the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs under this section shall be given by the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs to the person in respect of whom it is made.
- (5A) A notice under subsection (5) shall, except in the case of a decision to grant or to renew a licence or to impose other conditions, be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for the decision.
- (5B) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs made in respect of him under this section may, within 28 days after receiving notice of the decision, appeal to the Administrative Appeals Board.
- (5C) A decision that is appealed against under subsection (5B) shall be suspended in its operation as from the day on which the appeal is made until such appeal is disposed of, withdrawn or abandoned unless such suspension would, in the opinion of the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs, be contrary to the public interest and the notice of the decision contains a statement to that effect.
- (6) Where a condition of any such licence is contravened, the person to whom the licence was issued commits an offence unless he proves that the contravention occurred without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent it.

Amusements With Prizes Licence

Waiver, Reduction or Refund of Licence Fee

Pursuant to regulation 6 of the Gambling Regulations (Cap. 148A), the public officer appointed by the Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs (the public officer) may waive, reduce or refund the whole or any part of the fee payable upon the grant of an AWPL (the licence fee). Applicant for or licence holder of an AWPL may apply to the public officer for a waiver, a reduction or a refund of the licence fee.

Application for Waiver of Licence Fee

The public officer will normally consider granting an application for waiver of the licence fee if the applicant organisation or the 'parent' organisation of the applicant organisation is a charitable institution or trust of a public character which is exempted from tax under section 88 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112).

Application for Reduction of Licence Fee

The public officer will normally consider granting an application for reduction of the licence fee (i.e. to the current level of the official signature fees) if the applicant organisation is a non-commercial or voluntary services group and does not charge or collect any fee for the participation in the games of amusements with prizes or admission to the venue.

A request for waiver or reduction of licence fee should be made by the applicant of the licence in writing to the public officer stating the reasons and enclosing all supporting documents for the public officer's consideration. Each request will be determined on its own facts and circumstances.

Application for Refund of Licence Fee

Alternatively, licence holders may apply for a refund of licence fee after the completion of the game of amusement with prizes. The public officer will normally consider granting an application for refund of the licence fee if the licence holder is able to show that at least 75% of the proceeds received has been donated to charitable institution(s) or trust(s) of a public character which is exempted from tax under section 88 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112).

The application for refund of the licence fee should be made by the licensee in writing to the public officer stating the reasons and enclosing all relevant documents in support of the application, including a copy of statement of income and expenditure setting out all moneys collected or received from the operation of the game(s) of amusement with prizes as authorized by the licence and every disbursement made from the moneys so collected or received as well as copies of receipt of donation from the beneficiaries, for the public officer's consideration.

Each case will be considered on its own merits.
